

RESOLUTION No. 58 ON AVIATION SECURITY

[CEMT/CM(86)13/REVISED]

The Ministers of Transport of the ECMT Member countries and the Associate Member countries, meeting for the 63rd Session of the Council, held in Lausanne on 21st and 22nd May 1986

DEEPLY CONCERNED about international terrorism and its effects on transport, especially on civil aviation;

NOTWITHSTANDING the stringent requirements already in force in their countries;

DECIDE:

- TO STRENGTHEN their co-operation in the sphere of aviation security, especially within ECAC and ICAO;
- TO CONTINUE TO MAKE EVERY EFFORT to improve security in airports in their countries;
- TO STRENGTHEN co-operation at all levels and, more particularly, to exchange information relating to security and technological developments in connection with aircraft and airport security;
- TO ENSURE close co-operation among all the competent authorities within each country;
- TO SUPPORT all efforts made to address this problem in international organisations especially in ECAC and ICAO, and to instruct their delegates to these organisations to ensure that aviation security is assigned the highest priority.
